The White Man's Burden 1899

(The United States and the Philippine Islands)

Take up the White Man's burden -
 Send forth the best ye breed -
Go bind your sons to exile
 To serve your captives' need;
To wait in heavy harness
 On fluttered folk and wild -
Your new-caught sullen peoples,
 Half devil and half child.

Rudyard Kipling

Take up the White Man's burden -
 In patience to abide
To veil the threat of terror
 And check the show of pride;
By open speech and simple,
 An hundred times made plain,
To seek another's profit,
 And work another's gain.

"Black Octopus" is a name newly given to Russia by a certain prominent Englishman. For the black octopus is so voracious, that he stretches out his eight arms in all directions, and seizes up every thing that comes within his reach. But as it sometimes happens he gets wounded seriously even by a small fish, owing to his too much covetousness. Indeed, a Japanese proverb says: "Great avarice is like unselfishness." We Japanese need not to say much on the cause of the present war. Suffice it to say, that the further existence of the Black Octopus will depend entirely upon how he comes out of this war. The Japanese fleet has already practically annihilated Russia's naval power in the Orient. The Japanese army is about to win a signal victory over Russia in Korea & Manchuria. And when..... St. Petersburg? Wait & see! The ugly Black Octopus! Hurray! Hurray! for Japan.
