The ‘outsideness’ of Corbyn, which seduced many disenfranchised citizens to support him, was transformed by the British media into a form of dangerous ‘otherness’. As such, Corbyn was commonly depicted as an inimical political other, a deviant enemy of the British people and of the British state.

[,,] From this perspective, by positioning the leader of the largest opposition party in the UK as a deviant enemy, rather than a legitimate political actor, the British media has acted in an undemocratic manner.

TODAY the Daily Record backs Jeremy Corbyn to be the next Labour leader - for the sake of our nation.

We believe he best represents the core Labour values needed to build a fairer country and improve the lives of ordinary Scots.

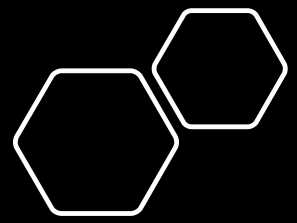

Corbyn's anti-austerity message inspires people and restores their faith that a better way is possible.

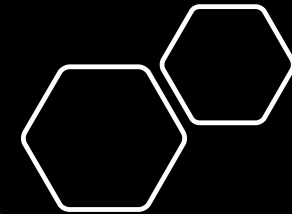

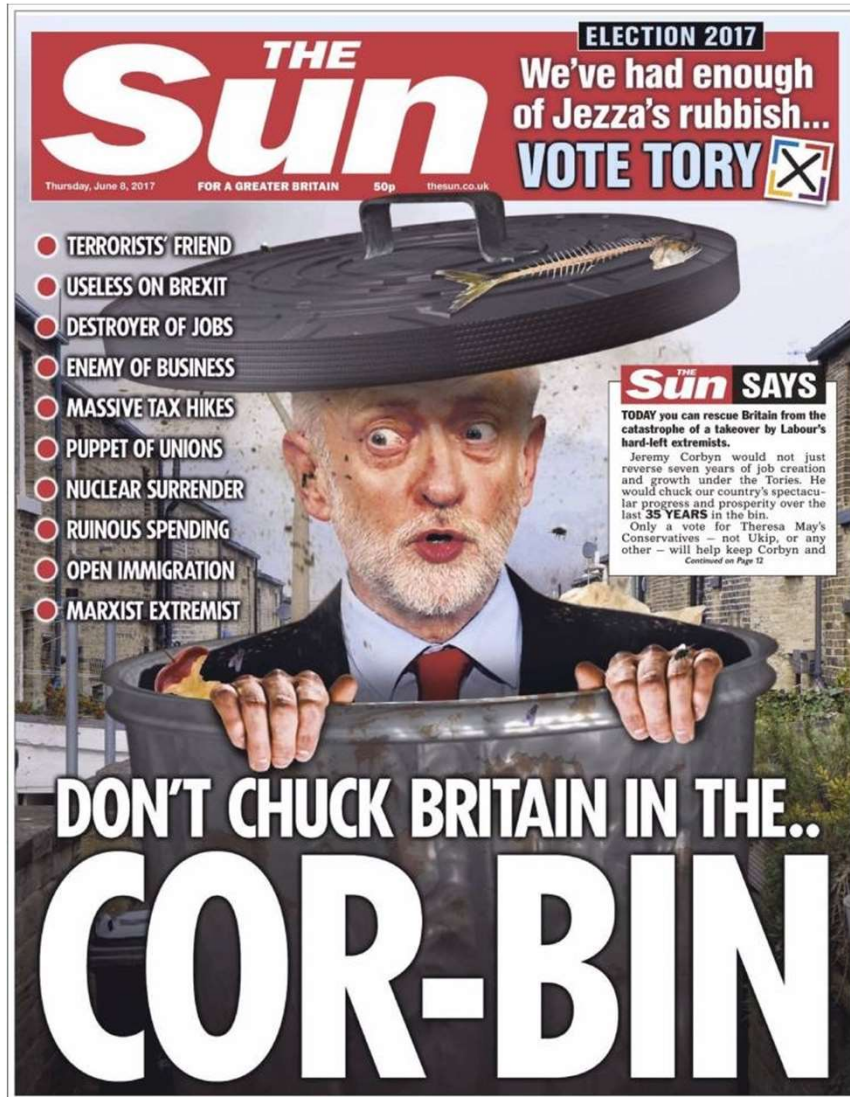

And with the first unadulterated trial that Tory Government in power for almost 20 years, we desperately need Labour to reconnect with its roots.

CORBYN'S £83BN TAX ROBBERY

FAMILIES face a triple whammy of tax rises, price hikes and lower wages as a result of Jeremy Corbyn's 'colossal' socialist spending spree, experts warned last night.

Labouring Labour's 'manifesto of hope' promises Mr Corbyn will for much more taxes to cut down a year, but the £83bn and spend hundreds of billions over a 10-year period, a total of 100 billion of tax cuts.

The manifesto proposed to cut tax cuts - but experts warned that the cuts would not be enough to fund Labour's plans.

Mr Corbyn's plan to spend more on education, raising the right-to-buy for council homes, ending the tax breaks for wealthy couples, cutting a 20% tax on the 10% of the richest tax, stopping a

EXCLUSIVE by JAKE RYAN

Jeremy Corbyn met a communist spy at the height of the Cold War and warned him of a showdown by British intelligence, according to secret files obtained by The Sun.

Mr Corbyn was vetted by Czech agents in 1956 and met one at least three times — twice in the Commons, it was claimed.

Last night a spokesman for the Labour leader said he met a diplomat, but never knowingly talked to a spy.

But expert Prof Anthony Glass said: "It shows breathtaking naivety from someone who wants to lead the British Government."

Corbyn's fantasy land

After a day of calamity – when he even ran over a BBC man's foot – how his class war manifesto would cost every family £4,000

LABOUR is plotting a £93 billion-a-year spending spree that would cost families an average of £4,000 each, it emerged last night.

Analysis of the party's leaked draft manifesto, which was signed off by Labour's high command yesterday, reveals an array of costly pledges – and little information about how they will be funded.

On a calamitous day for party leader Jeremy Corbyn – including his car running over a BBC presenter's foot – one expert described the manifesto as 'the most expensive mistake since its history'. And the
